

Marisa Taylor Bio

Marisa Taylor is an Art Therapist and Licensed Professional Counselor, currently serving children and families at Children's Hospital Colorado. She is also an Assistant Professor at the University of Colorado with leadership and supervisory responsibilities. Throughout her career she has worked in local public schools, hospitals, and community mental health centers. She is dedicated to Diversity, Health Equity, and Inclusion work and enjoys utilizing her bilingual skills in serving diverse populations. She loves the energy each patient and family brings to therapy, and encourages them to use their strengths to promote their health and wellness. She enjoys hiking, rock concerts, and relaxing at home.